Welcome...

to the 17th annual Cheshire Open Studios OPEN Exhibition & Open Studio event

A unique opportunity to see professional artists at work in their studios.

The Cheshire Open Studios OPEN Exhibition & Open Studios event provides a unique opportunity to experience art in Cheshire and meet artists in their own working environment i.e. their studios. Discover how and where they produce their work in an informal environment.

Gain an insight into painting, sculpture, ceramics, stone carving, jewellery making, pottery, textiles, willow weaving and crafts.

Explore, learn, see demonstrations, commission or buy from them directly.

Follow: #CheshireOS Cheshire Open Studios
“Awesome display of talent”

The studio openings are spread over two weekends in September giving you the opportunity to visit several studios in one or two days. Use the brochure maps or our online Google interactive maps to find studios and get directions to plan your art trail weekend.

“Relaxed, friendly and enjoyable – a real inspiration!”

Alison specialises in handcrafts such as felting, 3D felting, rag rugging, jewellery and upholstery; inspired by nature and the human form. Alison is constantly experimenting with new mediums, most recently batik and sculpting with wire. These are often incorporated into the felting works she produces. Recently featured on Alan Titchmarsh TV show.

Midge (a.k.a. B. Mullally) is inspired by the landscape and changing seasons combined with a love of nature, portraiture, the human form, wildlife and art journalling. Her passion is to capture mood, atmosphere and colour whilst experimenting with new creative artistic methods, mediums and techniques resulting in a wide selection of sketches & paintings in charcoal, ink, pastels, oils, acrylics & mixed media.

Both artists run a variety of workshops and welcome commissions.

Hazelwood Studios includes the work of Beth Barlow and Simon Kennedy. Whilst both artists enjoy working with ideas their finished work is very different. From tiny knitted people to pop art inspired celebrity paintings Hazelwood studios provides a view of how the same ideas can manifest in such original ways.

Simon Kennedy is a project based artist whose works span a range of disciplines and mediums. Simon is currently working on a body of new paintings inspired by celebrity culture. These images attempt to create an altogether new painterly language.
